EPAM USA PLLC is an independent Washington DC based law firm associated with Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners, the leading law firm in the CIS with offices in Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, and an associated office in London. EPAM USA PLLC serves as a conduit for Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners' CIS offices, as well as providing an essential client interface and certain US law advice.

Founded in 1993, Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners provides a full range of legal services to domestic and foreign businesses, governmental authorities, international organizations and financial institutions across the CIS.

Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners' lawyers are highly qualified specialists with background spanning both government work and academia. They are graduates of the finest law schools in the CIS, US and UK, and have worked extensively with leading US and UK firms.

What sets Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners apart from its competitors, is that its counsel directly addresses the often harsh realities of working in a rapidly changing emerging market such as the CIS, while maintaining the highest professional standards clients expect from any leading international firm.

Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners offers its impressive mix of leading multinational and domestic blue-chip clients a comprehensive problem-solving results-oriented approach that factors in not only careful legal analysis, but also commercial and political realities.

Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners' professionals are actively involved in business and legal communities and are regularly engaged as consultants on various aspects of legal reform and oversight by executive, legislative, and judicial branches of government, as well as local and global NGOs.
